

Glenn Stewardson, CFP

Glenn Stewardson is an author, speaker and a financial educator, specializing in lifestyle and charitable tax planning.

Glenn is a Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) and an active professional with the Donor Motivation Program since 2012 in the Maritimes. Glenn presents strategic planning with the Joyful Retirement Process to professionals and retirees to redirect their “social capital”, also known as taxes, to philanthropic organizations. Since 1994, Glenn has advised families across Canada on how they can create and live their Joyful Retirement.

Glenn is an executive member of the Halifax Estate Planning Council and serves on the board of the Community Foundation of Nova Scotia.

He also “walks the talk” having raised funds for numerous charitable causes over the last three decades. He has passed his fundraising passion on to his children. His daughter, Paige, was recognized as the top fundraiser for the Terry Fox Run at Madeline Symonds Middle School for three years in a row.

Glenn lives in Halifax with his wife, Tracy and their three children who are attending universities in Nova Scotia. Twin girls Grace, Paige, son Quinn and puppy dog Penny.
